

Get Yourself NOTICED

Promotional Merchandise Specialists

Who we are

We started our journey back in 2002, tampo and screen printing in a humble office in South Wales. We quickly outgrew that space and made the bold move to purchase our own building in 2010, with plenty of office space for our expanding team and acres of warehousing space.

Along the way we've expanded our product range and developed a global supply chain, working in partnership with the most trusted manufacturers in the promotional industry. We gained Charter Distributor accreditation from the BPMA, the gold standard of the industry, in 2011. This means that our customers can buy with confidence knowing that our processes and services are audited by industry regulators.

In 2023 we were awarded the Feefo Gold Trusted Service Award. This coveted award is given to companies that deliver time and time again for their customers and place them at the heart of all they do.

We are ranked number 1 on the NWUPC Promotional Materials framework, and have a long history of working with Universities to supply high quality promotional merchandise to suit all budgets.

As part of our commitment to the quality of our service and reducing our environmental impact, we hold ISO 9001 and 140001 accreditations, which are renewed on an annual basis.

What we do

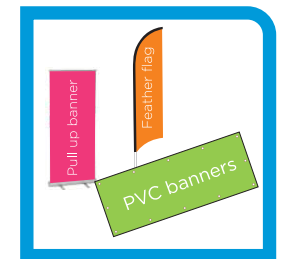

Getting You Noticed is what we are all about, and with our ever expanding range of promotional merchandise we will do just that!

We specialise in:

- Printed Promotional items
- Branded Business Gifts
- Exhibition Display Stands

Dedicated account management – your own brand ambassador!

At Get Yourself Noticed we want to learn all about your brand to make sure that when you order we already understand how and where your logo can be used. – to that end we assign a dedicated account manager who will become your own Brand Ambassador!

Our account managers are experts in the promotional industry, regularly attending trade shows, catching up with industry news and testing the latest gadgets from our factory partners. From the latest digital printing technology to Rubik's cubes embedded with Augmented Reality, we can advise what's current in the industry and what's working in your particular sector.

Your account manager will be a primary point of contact for your company, providing a consistent point of contact and learning all about you and your customers so that we can provide on brand unique promotional merchandise that will be remembered.

Sourcing

Looking for that special something? Then please give us a call - Creating memorable campaigns with a totally unique promotional product is what gets us up and excited in the morning!

As BPMA Charter members we work closely with over 80 partner factories across the globe, from mug factories in Stafford, plastic injection moulders in Blackpool to textile factories in Turkey and printers in Poland. We can find and source almost anything!

Colour matching the product to your corporate colour is possible on a wide range of products and is one of the simpler ways to customise your merchandise. Items like USBs, Powerbanks, keyrings and fridge magnets can all be manufactured from pantone matched materials.

Custom shaping of a product is also a great way to make your campaign unique. Either a keyring, fridge magnet or custom shaped to your own logo, or a soft toy or stress ball in the shape of your mascot. We can assist from initial quotations, mock-ups, 3-d proofing, certifications, quality assurance, packaging, right through to end delivery.

If you have a bit of a longer lead-time, and are looking at fairly substantial volumes, then sourcing from the Far East can allow greater personalization options (in terms of custom labels, pantone coloured materials etc.) and offer significant cost savings.

Supply change management

We regard our factories as our partners within the supply chain, helping us to deliver inspirational branded merchandise for our customers. Since 2002 we have developed these relationships and worked exclusively with factories who share our same commitment to quality, safety and customer service.

Get Yourself Noticed are part of the BPMA Charter, which operates for distributors like ourselves and also our factory partners ensuring a common set of ethics and excellent business practises that both sides can work towards achieving.

All companies that have been successful in obtaining the charter have been rigorously independently vetted for ethical business practices, sound financials, and excellence in quality management [ISO 9001].

We schedule regular factory meetings, with our supply chain partners ensuring all relevant external audits are kept up to date, this also allows us to get info on and road-test any new products before they are released.

Monitoring of our supply chain is carried out continuously through every order we supply, and when we use overseas factories to supply a specific product, we carry out an external audit using SGS.

Our close partnerships and approved global supply mean that we can consistently offer you the best service coupled with the widest promotional product range.

Product compliance

As part of our BPMA charter status – we comply to a set of ethical, compliance and trading standards. Compliance to these standards means that our customers can be reassured that we are part of an ethically responsible supply chain, providing quality products and services, as well as operating to high standards of business practice.

Since 2002 we have built up close relations with our supply chain partners working closely with them to ensure that all necessary compliances and standards are met and the promotional products carry the relevant CE Marking. This is backed up by factory auditing, product checking and certification at point of manufacture.

Examples include

- Any drinks bottles manufactured by our factory partner in Blackpool are BPA and Pthalate free, and certified food safe.
- Any branded child's toys branded for our customers campaigns will have been tested for compliance to EN71 – Toy Safety standard and manufactured in ethically approved factories.
- And any electrical branded item will have been tested and be compliant with the RoHS Directive on hazardous substances.

This gives you the reassurance that any product that carries your brand marker is safe, fit for purpose and compliant with all necessary regulations.

Schemes and fulfilment

One of our newest business features is the addition of our completely personalised webshops for customers.

The idea is that we will design, source, produce and store your promotional goods for you. We then design a bespoke online webshop for your exclusive use only. From here, our customers are able to order promotional goods in smaller quantities, and on a call-off basis.

We take care of everything for you, from holding stock, taking payment securely online and shipping out the goods. Webshops are becoming increasingly popular amongst our customers, and reflect the fast paced progress being made in online shopping. They're a great way to remain up-to-date and modern amongst your competitors.

Collation and bespoke packs

We also offer a hands-on approach to collation and fulfilment. Sometimes a single product just isn't enough to get your message across. On these occasions, we can put together a bespoke pack for you, designed to be coherent, cohesive and above all useful, which ties in with your branding, and fits your brief and budget. We can source promotional products from various factories throughout the UK and beyond and deliver them to our warehouse in South Wales. From here, we can then put your branded items into a neat little pack for sending either to yourself in bulk, or in individual parcels to your very lucky recipients.

Graphic design

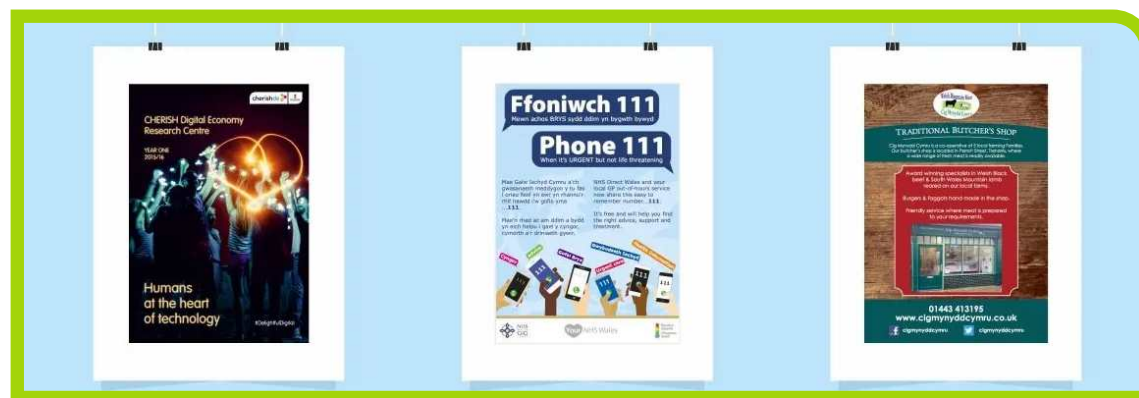

Here at Get Yourself Noticed our in-house designers are here to help with all of your design requirements, so there is no need to outsource a Graphic Designer for your project. We can handle your job from start to finish, all under one roof at a competitive price – making the order process even simpler.

Do you know what you want, but aren't sure how to achieve it? Our design team can turn your ideas into reality. From Logo design – to multi page brochures, the sky's the limit.

The advantage of using our in house design service is that we know our products inside out. We know what will work and what will not when it comes to branding your promotional products & branded business gifts. Time and time again we receive lovely works of art from external designers, which quite simply does not work onto promotional goods. We find that many designers do not take into consideration how their designs are actually going to be used in the real world. It's all well and good designing an exquisite full colour logo, but how will that look printed in 1 colour, if that is all the budget allows? How will it look 10mm high on a USB stick? How will it emboss onto a diary?

We think about these kinds of things so you don't have to. Our designers will provide you with a virtual sample for every item you order, so there are no surprises when it comes to delivery!

Our award winning design team is headed up by Leanne, who has over 15 years' experience designing for the promotional industry so rest assured, you are in safe hands. If you would like to discuss any design projects, please do not hesitate to contact us at artwork@getyourselfnoticed.com

How to order

Browse

You can find a wide selection of our products:

- In our current catalogue (click here to request a hard copy), or view the virtual version here
- On our Website www.getyourselfnoticed.com

If you can't find what you are looking for, please contact us, as we can source most things. Our range of products is continuously evolving.

Contact us

Once you have found what you are looking for, please contact us for a quote on:

- Call us on 01639 681000
- Email info@getyourselfnoticed.com
- Fill out an enquiry form on our website
- or use the Chat function on our website.

Let us know what you are looking for, how many you would like, how many print colours you will require (1 colour print if cheaper than full colour for instance). Please also let us know if you have a deadline, as some products have a longer lead time than others.

Quotation

We will email you a quotation based on what you have requested, showing a range of quantities and any options we feel would work for your campaign. Whereas the catalogue and website will give an indicative price, the quotation will be at your bespoke rates, and include carriage, and any origination* charges.

*Origination is a one off set up charge per item, which will cover the cost of making a physical print screen.

Order Confirmation

If you would like to go ahead with any of the items on your quote, please confirm which quantities & options. We will then send you an Order Acknowledgement document confirming just the items and quantities you would like to order and a total cost.

Artwork Visuals

Once the order is confirmed, we will contact you to discuss your artwork requirements. Our in house design team will put together artwork visuals, and email them across to you for your approval. Nothing will go ahead until you approve your visuals.

Production

Once you have approved your artwork visuals, your orders will then go into production. Our production team will manage the orders and let you know the expected delivery dates.

Delivery

Receiving your goods - the most exciting part! If you have ordered multiple items, these will most likely arrive separately (we have a network of printers specialising in different products).

Invoicing

We usually invoice after delivery, invoices are on 30 day terms unless otherwise agreed.
